In addition to the radio and television programs listed above, a recorded series of interviews, music, stories, poems, entitled THIS IS TURKEY was broadcast over the ABC/Network and affiliated independent stations each Monday evening at 10:15 p.m. This is still in effect.

Recorded copies of these programs were forwarded to other stations of which a list was furnished in our report for the period ending December 31, 1952. This material was supplied to the stations free of charge, and used by them as a public service, also free of charge.

The ABC programs are produced by Henry Kilo Associates of Sparta, N.J., and are recorded at Rockwell Studios, 18 West 50th Street, New York City.

Another list (attached) shows the appearances before various schools and organizations by TADIK BILAL, musician, whose Exhibit A form was forwarded with our letter of November 8, 1956.
